Last Updated July 13, 2022 In an effort to keep neighborhoods from unnecessary and unsightly blight, the City of Tacoma has regulations for properly parking vehicles in residential areas. Those who are in violation of the parking rules can now be reported to the abandoned autos Web site . If you witness a vehicle that is blocking public rights-of-way, obstructing traffic or jeopardizing public safety; parked in the same spot for longer than seven days or parked against traffic; is unlicensed, inoperable, abandoned, disassembled, or dilapidated vehicles on the street or in the city right-of-way; a vehicle parked the wrong way (against traffic) or any bus, trailer, semi-truck or other commercial vehicle on a residential street longer than an hour you are encouraged to report the vehicle. In addition to the Web site, the City offers an automated abandoned autos hotline. When reporting an abandoned vehicle using the hotline or the online reporting tool, you will need to include the following: the location, description of the vehicle and the license plate number, if available. Once a complete report is made, an abandoned vehicle enforcement officer will respond to most complaints the following day. If the officer finds a vehicle to be in violation, a warning tag will be placed on the vehicle. After a vehicle has been tagged the owner has up to seven days to remove it. If the vehicle has not been removed after that time, the City has the authority to impound and/or dispose of the vehicle at the registered owner's expense. If you witness parking violations or are experiencing abandoned auto issues within city limits, you are encouraged to use the abandoned autos online reporting system or to call the abandoned auto hotline at (253) 591-5926, 24-hours a day, seven days a week for assistance. Once the towing company has your vehicle for 120 hours, they consider it and any campers, snowmobiles, jet skis, or other cars attached to or on the towed vehicle abandoned. After it has your vehicle for 120 hours, the tow company must give DoL an abandoned vehicle report. Within 72 hours of getting that report, DoL must give the tow company your contact info. Within 24 hours of getting your contact info, not counting weekends or holidays, the towing company must mail you a notice of custody and sale. It must get proof of mailing from the post office. If 15 days or more have passed since mailing the notice of custody and sale, and you have not gotten your car back or challenged the towing, the towing company will sell the car and registered or titled property at public auction. Any time before the auction, you can buy back the property by paying towing and storage fees. *The towing company must run the auction date and time in the newspaper. You can try to buy your things back at the auction. After the auction, you may still owe the towing company up to $500 if their costs are more than what they got from selling your car. You may owe more if law enforcement authorized the impoundment. Read Debtor's Rights: Dealing with Collection Agencies.
